

GIOVANNA MONDAVI (GIGI)

Much like the rest of her family, Giovanna Mondavi (Gigi) has wine in her blood. As the youngest of 4 girls, Gigi grew up following her sisters' footsteps. It only made sense that Gigi start her first job at her family's winery, Charles Krug, at 10 years old as a laboratory assistant. Gigi ventured away from home to spend her high school years at a boarding school, Brentwood College located on Vancouver Island, British Columbia. After her time on Vancouver Island, she moved to Boston to continue her education. In 2015, she graduated from the D'Amore McKim School of Business, Northeastern University, and she currently still resides in Boston working in sales working at MFS Investments. For every hour she is not working at MFS Investments, as part of the 4th Generation, Gigi actively serves as a C.Mondavi & Family Brand Ambassador throughout the Northeast while currently pursuing her Level 2 Certificate in Wine Studies at Boston University.
